

Cégep à distance FAQs

Please note that most of this information was taken directly from the Cégep à distance website. Please consult their website for the most up-to-date information.

How long does it take to complete a course at Cégep à distance?

Finish your studies at your own pace, wherever you want, whenever you want.

Take up to six months to submit your assignments and take up to three months to write your final evaluations after your final assignment is marked.

On average, it takes approximately 4-4.5 months to finish a course. *****

How do I register?

1) Fill out an online request form via the summer school website. Once you complete the form, it will take up to 5 business days to process.

2) Once it has been processed, you will receive a document on OMNIVOX under Information intended for you called “Summer School - Permission to take a course at another CEGEP”. Click on the link in that document to proceed with your registration.

You will need your PERMANENT CODE to complete your registration. It can be found at the bottom of your Progression Chart on OMNIVOX.

What happens after I register?

Once registered, you will receive course materials by mail or through the Internet. They usually include:

- A user code and a password to log on to the online Campus
- A study guide
- A textbook with a workbook or course pack
- Exercises, answer keys, and assignments
- The courses offered at Cégep à distance tend to use a multimedia format—that is, they use many different media (websites, audiovisual clips, MP3, videos, PDF or print documents, etc.) to create a dynamic and interactive learning process.

Receiving your materials and starting your course

Make sure that your package contains all the materials you need, plan your schedule, and get started right away. It is recommended that you submit your first assignment within six weeks of registering.

What courses are being offered?

Click here to view the courses at a glance leaflet.

How do I get evaluated?

The exams are available online, in the learning environment.

The courses include three to seven assignments. You have a maximum of six months to submit your final assignment under Cégep à distance rules. After that, you must take one or more final exams no more than three months after your tutor records the mark for your final assignment. Certain conditions apply to some courses.

How will taking a class at Cégep à distance affect my R Score?

For more information regarding how your R score is calculated for a Cégep à distance course, please visit their webpage explaining the R score at Cégep à distance.

How much does a course at Cégep à distance cost?

To find out the cost of a course, please see their online Course Selection Guide. Search for the course you are interested in and then scroll to the bottom of the page for the Fees section.

The tuition fee is the same as at other public cégeps.

To enrol in the summer session with a commandite, you have to pay the total fee at the time of enrolment. The tuition fee may be reimbursed (where eligible) once your college sends the Ministère de l'Éducation confirmation of your eligibility for free tuition.

You always have to pay for the course materials, shipping and handling costs and session fees. Please see the Fees page for more details.